GBGB ANNOUNCES FULL 2021 CATEGORY ONE SCHEDULE

Following on from the confirmed dates of the Greyhound Derby, the Oaks and St. Leger, GBGB's Open Race Planning Committee is pleased to announce the dates for all confirmed Category 1 races in 2021.

A total of 46 Category 1 races have been confirmed this year, which is an increase from 35 in 2020 but notably also from the 42 Category 1 events run in 2019, prior to the Covid-19 pandemic. The 2021 diary also includes a number of revitalised competitions that have not been run in recent years - including the Northern Flat and Grand Prix - as well as new events, and races which have been upgraded to Category 1 status.

The schedule provides opportunities for each type of greyhound across all race categories and will give racing fans an exciting diary of racing to look forward to. By releasing the whole year's calendar in advance it is hoped that owners and trainers will be able to plan long-term campaigns for their greyhounds.

The Open Race Planning Committee is hugely grateful to all the tracks that have submitted events and demonstrated their commitment to our sport's premier races.

The schedule also includes confirmed Category 2 events. A handful of Cat 1 and Cat 2 races are still to be confirmed and will be announced in the coming weeks and all races will be advertised in full in the GBGB Calendar in due course.

The calendar of all Category 1 events can be seen opposite.

Amanda Duplock, GBGB Racing Committee Secretary, said:

"Having a greyhound compete in these races is what everyone in our sport aspires to. We are therefore delighted to be able to provide owners and trainers with a full schedule for the remainder of the year which will enable them to properly plan ahead."

"We have an exciting year of racing ahead of us but it has, unsurprisingly, been a particularly challenging year to organise. The Open Race Planning Committee is hugely grateful to ARC, Entain Group, Towcester, to the British Greyhound Breeders Forum and to all the tracks that have worked on the schedule with us over recent weeks."

"We are pleased to have put together a cohesive schedule with as many opportunities as possible across all categories while avoiding overlaps and clashes wherever possible. While significant overlaps have been avoided, any remaining clashes have been carefully considered and decided to be the best option available."

"As in 2020, there has been a slight shift to the second half of the year to understandably allow for stadia to reopen their doors but, following the Prime Minister's announcement this week, we can all be hopeful that owners and fans will be able to watch their greyhounds from the track before too long."

GBGB GREYHOUND OF THE YEAR 2020 AWARD WINNERS

It was a GBGB Awards ceremony with a difference this year, as the canine stars of 2020 were celebrated at a special virtual event held and broadcast online on the evening of Sunday 14th February.

The ceremony, hosted by Darrell Williams and Jonathan Hobbs, gave viewers a chance to look back at the racing highlights of 2020 and the phenomenal performances of our sport's top athletes. This year, the most hotly contested award of the night, the GBGB Greyhound of the Year 2020, was won by Aayamza Royale, trained by Mark Wallis for the Ayamzaboys Syndicate.

The evening was also an opportunity to recognise the hard work and dedication of the trainers, owners and kennelhands who care for our canine athletes and ensure they have everything they need to perform at their very best.

Congratulations to connections of all the nominees and award winners.

For those who missed the live ceremony, or want to replay any key moments, a catch-up recording of the broadcast, with complete versions of every video clip (including the few affected by technical issues on the night) is available at www.gbgb.org.uk.

The 2020 category Award winners are:

BEST DAM OF BRITISH BRED 2020

SKATE ON is the GBGB Best Dam of British Bred 2020 – for the fourth year running.

The one-time Oaks runner-up and star sprinter on the track for Liz and Rab McNair has proved one of the outstanding dams of the modern era and a real boost for her owners the K.S.S. Syndicate, led by Brendan Keogh.

Skate On's offspring amassed 362 points in 2020 with littermates Queen Jessiej (150) and King Drake (75), from a May 2018 batch by Leamaneigh Turbo, her top two points-scorers.

Queen Jessiej landed 14 of her 21 starts in 2020, among them winning the Produce Stakes as well as finishing second in the Oaks. King Drake won the GBGB British Bred Midlands Sprint Trophy and was runner-up in the Kent Silver Salver.

Ten of Skate On's offspring scored points in 2020, with the likes of older runners such as King Lennon (35) and King Sheeran (27), from her February 2017 litter by the McNairs' former track star Eden The Kid, also playing their part.

The GBGB Best Dam of British Bred award is one which has been dominated by the McNairs and the KSS Syndicate, having also won it in 2016 with Shaws Dilemma.

Another of their broods, Queen Asia (199 pts), finished second to Skate On in the 2020 Best Dam rankings with Kevin Ferguson's Acomb Ruby (116 pts) a very commendable third.

Liz Mort, chair of the British Greyhound Breeders Forum, said:

"Our congratulations and thanks to Brendan, Simon (Senyk) and the McNairs – firstly for their dream of breeding pups in the UK as good as they had been buying in Ireland – and then for their belief and perseverance in carrying that dream into reality. Special congratulations to Liz and Rab who produce and train these litters so very well.

"What can we say about Skate On? What a bitch! We knew she was special on the track – but didn't realise how special she was going to be! Four of the five finalists in that 2012 Oaks went on to produce litters, but none as successful as she has been.

"So many of her offspring have been outstanding on the track and two of her sons – King Elvis and King Sheeran – are now standing at stud. One was Greyhound of the Year and the other British Bred Greyhound of the Year – and Queen Jessiej has now emulated her mum by finishing second in the Oaks. When the time comes, she'll be another real boost to the breeding paddocks.

"Well done also to Queen Asia for the same connections, who was runner-up in this category. This is another special achievement given she was bred and reared by the KSS/McNair combination out of one of their first broods and one-time Best Dam herself Shaws Dilemma.

"Big congratulations to Kevin Ferguson for coming a close third in this category with Acomb Ruby. She had one litter of five pups by Hiya Butt, but goodness it's an impressive litter with all five having gone on to win races.

"Thank you to GBGB for sponsoring this valuable category in the Awards – without good brood bitches there is nothing, and we are lucky we have some really good ones in this country now."

K.S.S. CROWNED CORAL OWNERS OF THE YEAR 2020

Congratulations to the K.S.S. Syndicate - the Coral Owners of the Year for 2020.

This is the sixth time the syndicate, led by Brendan Keogh, has won the title having scooped the award following successes in 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

Their team of greyhounds, trained by Liz and Rab McNair at their base in Ashford, Kent, amassed a huge 594 points, finishing ahead of Evan Herbert (254) and Kenny Glen (222).

The Owner of the Year is awarded to the owner or owners whose greyhounds have collected the highest number of points based on the same scoring system as used to decide the Champion Trainer.

Queen Jessiej, as the joint-winning most open-racer in 2020 with 14 wins from 21 starts, top scored for the McNair/K.S.S. Syndicate combination.

The Produce Stakes winner also finished second in the Oaks at Swindon, plus made the finals of both Monmore's Puppy Derby and Gold Cup. Individually she scored 150 points.

Nottingham's British Breeders Stakes winner Queen Dolly (89) was another runner from the kennels to have enjoyed a successful 2020, along with BGBF British Bred Derby (Sheffield) and British Breeders Stakes second King Louis (80).

Special mention should also go to the winner of the BGBF British Bred Midlands Sprint Trophy (Nottingham) and Kent Silver Salver (Central Park) runner-up King Drake (75).

GBGB Managing Director Mark Bird said:

"Congratulations to Brendan and Simon (Senyk) and, of course, Liz and Rab (McNair) for their great success again in 2020. Their greyhounds continue to do them proud – and have done so for many years. The fact they're largely breeding all their winners also makes this sixth Owner of the Year award very special – fair play to all the Kings and Queens!

"Mention should also be made of what Evan Herbert and Kenny Glen achieved with their greyhounds last year – Desperado Dan was a real star for Evan last year and, of course, Kenny won the Derby with Deerjet Sydney.

"Owners play a critical role in our sport and their patience and loyalty over the past year cannot be understated. We very much hope that, once the Lockdown restrictions begin to ease, owners will be able to return to the track to see their canine athletes perform once again."

ARC GRADED GREYHOUND OF THE YEAR 2020

COLD MOUNTAIN, trained at Monmore by Paul Sallis, is the ARC Graded Greyhound of the Year for 2020.

Owned by William Adamson and Martin Lloyd, the January 2017 son of Superior Product and Knockmant Tily impressed the GBGB judging panel for maintaining a high level of performance throughout the year.

A winner of 12 of 28 graded starts in 2020, Cold Mountain proved a regular A1 winner which the panel considered to be a superb return at a track considered to have one of the strongest kennel strengths in the country.

Monmore racing manager Tony Williamson said:

"It's great news and absolutely well done to Cold Mountain – a tremendous recognition for a brilliant greyhound that has been a delight to watch throughout 2020.

"His record among the very best here at Monmore in A1 was top-class, winning nine races in the grade including a three-in-a-row in October. He also won three A2s. He had a brilliant year and has been a credit to connections.

"Indeed, congratulations go to Paul Sallis and Esther Driver and the team for their hard work and success with Cold Mountain. But I'd also like to give a special mention to the owners Martin Lloyd and William Adamson, who are massive supporters of Monmore.

"They deserve the recognition this award brings – and we're looking forward to seeing them back here at Monmore soon. It's been a hugely difficult last 12 months for everyone, but awards like this raise the mood – especially for those closest to Cold Mountain."

On hearing the news, trainer Paul Sallis said:

"We are absolutely thrilled that Mountain has been crowned Grader of the Year – it is a very proud day at our kennels.

"Mountain is a fantastic dog and has been a pleasure to train from the very first day he arrived with us. At the kennels he is very happy and lively, he is always jumping up for fuss which is more like a headbutt on occasions as he's a strong dog! On the track he is ever the professional and always gives 100 percent and this shows in the consistency of his record.

"This award could not have been achieved without the dedication of our team here and the countless hours that my partner Esther puts into our operation. They always go the extra mile for our greyhounds and it is such a pleasure when this is shown in the condition and performance of our dogs. I could not do it without them.

"We are all hugely proud of Mountain – he is a star and we are thankful for Tony and the team Monmore for putting him forward for this award. Most of all we are absolutely over the moon for his owners."

Co-owner Martin Lloyd, a sponsor of annual races at Monmore in memory of his late wife Joyce said:

"It's marvellous news, we can't get over it! Mountain is a fantastic dog, he's a trap 2 specialist and has just kept on winning for us. A huge thank you to Paul, Esther and the team, and to Monmore."

The GBGB panel, while delighted to acknowledge the performances in 2020 of Cold Mountain, were also keen to recognise the efforts of runner-up Going Through for Perry Barr trainer Peter Holland.

Third place went jointly to Southfield Ariel (Dean Childs, Crayford) and Kereight I Cant (Tony Taylor, Hove), while special mention was made of senior performers Feel the Heat (Pamela Cross, Yarmouth) and Slaneyside Agnes (Philip Wilson, Nottingham).

MEGAN FLOOD IS THE BAGS KENNELHAND OF THE YEAR 2020

Megan, 29, who works for Romford trainer Maxine Locke, succeeded last year's winner Hannah Prince at the virtual ceremony broadcast on Sunday 14 February.

Having joined Maxine aged 17, Megan has long been a key member of the Locke kennel and her work impressed the Kennelhand of the Year panel – broadcaster Tanya Stevenson, GBGB Welfare and Integrity Manager Duncan Gibson, Head of Greyhound Trust Harvel (Croftview Kennels), Cheryl Miller and GBGB Quality Manager Amanda Duplock.

GBGB Welfare and Integrity Manager Duncan Gibson said:

"The panel could see Megan's dedication, that greyhounds were very much her life, but also how important she was to the trainer herself."

GBGB received a huge response to its request for kennel staff nominations and thanks all those who took the trouble to nominate a kennelhand, with responses from owners, trainers, racing office staff and from colleagues of those nominated.

Gibson added:

"Overall it was a really strong entry – and varied, too.

"The panel was really impressed by all the nominations, from young people making their start in the game and really going the extra mile to learn all they can, to those who have been in greyhound racing all their life.

"However, this prestigious award is presented to one outstanding kennelhand who shows impressive commitment to their work and who goes above and beyond to provide the highest standards of care to the greyhounds in their charge."

Megan's name came shining through, much to the delight of trainer Maxine Locke, who said:

"I'm so pleased Megan has won Kennelhand of the Year. I really can't think of anyone who deserves it more than her – she's been my rock here for many years!

"In fact, I'd be lost without her. She's been with me for 13 years now and, during that time, nothing has proved too much for her. The greyhounds absolutely come first and have become her life since she joined us – she just fell in love with them!

"Megan takes retired racers home regularly and, while she came to us a very shy girl, working with the dogs has brought her out of herself. She's worked every Christmas Day since being here – and I don't even need to ask her! I know she'll be here.

"She gives up her days off to help if we need her. The greyhounds are her best friends, so she would swap any shift or holiday to help the greyhounds and does the job with no fuss or complaints. Honestly I can't say enough about her. Megan really is priceless to us."

It was staff at the Romford racing office who nominated Megan for the Kennelhand of the Year award and the track's racing manager Mark Arkell was full of praise for her – although joked she would likely hate being thought of in this way!

He said:

"Megan is very shy and keeps herself to herself, but she'd be classed as very much an unsung hero of the sport.

"You can tell how much she cares about her greyhounds. We see that at first hand in how she presents the dogs on the scales and when parading. She focuses on the job in hand.

"Megan will probably hate the idea of this award, but absolutely deserves it and all of us here at Romford congratulate her. We're very proud of her achievement."

BAGS Kennelhand of the Year 2020 runners-up were Connor Wrigglesworth, who works for Sheffield trainer Sean Davy, and Donna Witches, assistant and partner of Kevin Hutton. Both will receive £250.

The judging panel also wished to record a 'special commendation' for Josh Parker.

Josh is in the early stages of his career in racing kennels and went the extra mile for Central Park trainer Mark Fenwick when the kennels moved site last year.

PATRICK JANSSENS IS THE LADBROKES TRAINER OF THE YEAR 2020

Patrick Janssens is the Ladbrokes Trainer of the Year 2020.

Ending the long reign of multiple winner Mark Wallis, his former boss, Janssens said he was very proud to have lifted the coveted trophy and paid tribute to the team behind him at his Thetford kennels – wife Cheryl, daughter Ria and partner Luke Staunton, and Ron Mills – whose collective hard work saw the team win a magnificent seven GBGB Category One titles in 2020.

Having finished fourth in 2018 and then second in 2019, Janssens' rise to the top was completed in 2020 as, from the moment Skilful Sandie (Ladbrokes Golden Jacket) and Goldies Symnsy (Peter Bussey Memorial) landed him a memorable matinee big-race double at Crayford in February, he never looked back.

"That was almost the perfect day," he said. "Winning both competitions in front of a really good crowd with a great atmosphere – and brilliant performances from both Sandie and Symnsy was great. Sandie always had a touch of class and was a top-class bitch, now retired and set for breeding, but Symnsy was a plan which came off!"

It was a call taken from legendary former trainer Harry Crapper – and then another exhandler Craig Hopkins – which proved pivotal in the handler's year.

"Harry called me and asked if I could take in Kilara Lion, which he part-owned, because Craig's daughter Alex was taking a break to have a baby. I was pretty full at that stage, but then Craig came on as well, told me the situation, and I took him in," Janssens explained.

Wins in the RPGTV Yarmouth Derby and Ladbrokes Kent Derby at home track Central Park secured Kilara Lion two Category Ones in 2020, matched by Desperado Dan's wins in Romford's Coral Champion Stakes and Ladbrokes Gold Collar.

Commenting on Desperado Dan's success, Patrick said: "Dan's just a star here – and is probably one of the most popular dogs in training. At Crayford he was probably the best he's ever been – but in general he's the sort of greyhound who turns up, runs his race and will do the same the next week and the next week. He's always been one of our favourites."

Coral Sussex Cup winner Bockos Doomie, described by Janssens as "one of the classiest dogs I've ever put a lead on", Coral Golden Sprint winner Goldies Huddle and multiple Category One finalist Lenson Whelan also played key roles as part of a select yet quality team.

As well as thanking his staff, Janssens paid particular tribute to his owners. "I have a group of fantastic owners – they know who they are – and without their support and them buying these greyhounds we wouldn't be where we are. It's a great honour to be Trainer of the Year, we're immensely proud – and will try to do it again in 2021!"
