Magnificent Memphis: Trainer Liz McNair has a strong hand to play in Sunday's RPGTV English Puppy Derby Final at Towcester of three Kings and a Queen. King Memphis (pictured) was sensational in setting a new track record of 28.66sec for the 500m in last week's semi-final and goes to traps odds-on favourite to land the Cat One prize. Litter-brother King Combs, and kennelmates King Capaldi and Queen Dusty stand in his way, along with Coolavanny Mercy and Droopys Eddie who complete the line up. It promises to be a weekend to savour, as Laughill Jess bids to extend her unbeaten Crayford run to 17 in tomorrow's Gold Collar Final for trainer Dave Lee. Good luck to all connections.

PREMIER GREYHOUND RACING ECLIPSE AT NOTTINGHAM ON MONDAY PROMISES TO BE ONE OF THE RACES OF THE YEAR

NOTTINGHAM will stage one of the races of the year on Monday after the line-up for the Premier Greyhound Racing Eclipse was decided after another top-class night's action at the Colwick Park venue.

A fastest-of-the-night success from Newinn Syd was then followed by a double for Ireland as both Clona Duke and Bockos Crystal starred - with each semi-final winner chased home by a more-than-worth opponent heading into Monday's £20,000-to-the-winner decider over 500m.

First up was the Mark Wallis-trained Newinn Syd as the October 2021 son of Droopys Sydney and Newinn Mimi broke smartly, crucially ahead of English Derby runner-up Romeo Command, and thereafter was always in pole position.

The winner's kennelmate Ballymac John had also trapped well and turned in second, denying Romeo Command any chance of securing a position from which to challenge for the lead - and Newinn Syd to full advantage to race away for a brilliant five and a quarter length success over the keeping-on Ballymac John in 29.25sec (+30).

A delighted winning trainer Wallis said of the kennel's one-two: "They both ran fantastically well - and needed to in what is a great Eclipse.

"Syd was third in the Puppy Classic there but has improved lots since. He's turning into the dog we always hoped he'd be and couldn't be faulted again on Monday, but I'm also delighted how Ballymac John ran. It was certainly good teamwork because he was very much a goalkeeper for Syd, not letting Romeo Command get past.

"It's a brilliant final and one of the best races of the year. You've got big-race winners, track record-breakers and Irish interest and should be a great night. As a kennel, though, we're delighted to have two finalists."

Graham Holland will also have two runners in Monday's final after both Clona Duke and Bockos Crystal also repeated their heat victories with impressive wins again at the Colwick Park venue, scene of Clona Duke's JenningsBet Select Stakes success this year.

Also winner of Waterford's Time Greyhound Nutrition Select Stakes, Clona Duke might have lost his Towcester track record the previous afternoon to King Memphis in the RPGTV English Puppy Derby semis but was at his faultless best as a slick exit set up a length-and-a-quarter length win over the always-handy Burj Khalifa (Diane Henry).

The winning time for Clona Duke, a March 2021 son of Malachi and Coolavanny Pearl, was 29.51sec (+30) and, while kennelmate Bockos Crystal's 29.59sec (+30) was slightly slower, Graham Holland's Irish Derby runner-up had the distinction of posting the fastest split of the night (4.91sec) on her way to making all.

Quickly away, the August 2020 daughter of Droopys Sydney and Vigorous Hilary was always in control of proceedings, although Droopys Google (Nathan Hunt) stayed on strongly to keep within length-and-a-quarter length of the winner, the pair finishing a long way clear of third-placed Headford Chief (Paula Timmins).

ULTRA-GAME EFFORT FROM THE FANTASTIC LAUGHILL JESS MERITS RESPECT IN TOMORROW'S LADBROKES GOLD COLLAR FINAL AS SHE BIDS FOR HER 17TH CRAYFORD SUCCESS

LAUGHILL JESS raised the roof at Crayford on Saturday when extending her unbeaten run at Crayford to 16 with a hard-fought but ultra-game effort to deny Aayamza Sydney in the third semi-final of the Ladbrokes Gold Collar.

Dave Lee's prolific-scoring runner was out-trapped by Aayamza Sydney (John Mullins) but was soon in top gear inside and joined issue with the leader rounding the first two turns, after which the pair had a cracking buckle for the remainder of the six-bend course before the Crayford-based bitch, a May 2021 daughter of Out Of Range ASB and Laughill Irene, nosed ahead for a short-head win in 33.55sec (normal).

The pair will line up again in Saturday's £10,000 final and will be joined by the Mark Wallis-trained Minnie Bullet and King Ezra (Liz McNair) after they finished first and second in the first semi, with the former posting the fastest semi-final time.

Well away, the January 2021 daughter of Good News and Moanduff Daisy was always in command and, with form over further, was on her way to three and a quarter lengths win over King Ezra in 33.59sec (normal), who edged out the running-on Dapper Mac (John Mullins) for the qualifying position in the week's GBGB Category One title.

Minnie Bullet's performance delighted Mike Davis of the owning MWD Partnership (with Mark Wallis and Michelle Connolly) who is hoping his ultra-consistent performer and multiple big-race finalist lands the big-race success her efforts in 2023 have deserved.

Third in the Bet365 Empress Stakes (to kennelmate Crafty Shivoo) at Towcester, fourth in the Bet365 Hunt Cup (to Havana Lover) at Oxford, fourth in the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket (to Bellmore Sally) at Crayford and third in the Coral Essex Vase (to Aayamza Magic) at Romford, Saturday will be a fifth Category One final in 2023 for the 2022 Bet365 Puppy Oaks winner - and a sixth in total.

Davis said: "It's a great record and just shows you how consistent she is. She took a while to settle and Mark gave her plenty of time - in fact I don't think she won a race in the UK until her seventh start but stamina-wise was always top-notch and that saw her well in the Puppy Oaks, even though it was obvious her future was over further.

"I actually think she's running as well as ever now. Remember, she arrived as a really young bitch, unraced in Ireland, and we've watch her grow for her previous owners and she's done fantastic for us, too.

"Saturday's race is one she can win but has to do things right. She's drawn outside Laughill Jess which might not be ideal because she's flying and is a real credit to her connections - that's an unbelievable record at Crayford! But I'm delighted we're back in another Crayford final. They do things well there and it promises to be a great morning's racing."

Incidentally, Davis is a guest on the next Gone To The Dogs podcast with Joe Andrews and Dani Jackson, to be recorded this week.

There was an upset in the second semi-final as Kevin Boon's Gutsy Jet overhauled Moaning Rossi (Darren Whitton) on the run for home to score in 33.98sec (normal) - in a race in which odds-on favourite Havana Lover (Liz McNair) lost all chance of qualifying when missing the star, albeit stayed on well in third.

However, victory went to the strong-running Gutsy Jet as the February 2021 son of Lenson Bocko and Riverside Honey turned in a handy position into a winning to initiate a quickfire double for trainer Boon given kennelmate Bettys Jack (23.06) won the very next race, posting the fastest 380m time of the day in his heat of the Ladbrokes Kent Rose Bowl.

NEXT STOP ALL ENGLAND CUP FOR HARRY BURTON'S ARC SUNDERLAND CLASSIC HERO JONNY WHISKERS

JONNY WHISKERS completed a notable Sunderland double for dual Newcastle and Pelaw Grange trainer Harry Burton when landing Friday's Arc Classic Final at the Wearside track.

Having already landed the Arc Puppy Trophy at the Boldon venue in June with Ballybough Mags, it was the turn of kennelmate Jonny Whiskers to star with an unbeaten run through the £12,500-to-the-winner GBGB Category One competition.

Led from the boxes by the fast-starting Pape Di Oro (Savva Roberts), Johnny Whiskers soon paced up into contention and launched a challenge for the lead down the back-straight and was not to be denied in the 450m decider.

Striking the front before the third turn, Burton's May 2021 son of Skywalker Logan and Cudkevinbewrong was away and on his way to success, crossing the line a length and a quarter in front of Pape Di Oro and another Burton-trained finalist March On Larry.

The victory for the Anthony Thompson-owned runner delighted Burton, who told the Racing Post: "He had a couple of good times on his card at Galway and we like to source them from there. It's a good track for Newcastle, you can compare the times. But he's clearly taken to Sunderland, and he's not one of those who's lead-dependent.

"Big credit to Glenn Foot for handling him - and Billy Jo Duncan. She's a veterinary nurse by trade and is a great help here . . . the All England Cup will be next."

Joanne Wilson, Sunderland's general manager, was also full of praise for the winning trainer and his team, and was delighted with how this year's Classic unfolded and thrilled to see a packed presentation podium on top of a best-of-year attendance.

"Friday for the Arc Classic Final really was a special night here," said Wilson. "The North East was represented by four greyhounds in the main event and many more in the supporting opens which is great for the area and resulted in a very memorable evening.

"We saw the biggest crowd of the year attend and the atmosphere and roar from the spectators was incredible. I've never seen as many people on our presentation stand as we had for Jonny Whiskers - so well done to Harry (Burton) and his team.

"Nights like Friday is what's great about our sport and my team put on a superb event - I'm very proud of them all.

"We had some very positive feedback from trainers and owners whether it be about the racing surface, paddock staff, food in our restaurant or the commemorative rosettes and pictures they received as finalists - it was all lovely to hear.

"It was great to see trainers travelling and supporting the competition and we look forward to 2024."

KING MEMPHIS BOOKS HIS PLACE IN SUNDAY'S RPGTV ENGLISH PUPPY DERBY DECIDER IN TRACK RECORD FASHION

KING MEMPHIS rewrote the record books at Towcester on Sunday as Liz McNair's precocious young star King Memphis set a new track record for the Northamptonshire track's 500m trip with a stunning effort in the second semi-final of the RPGTV English Puppy Derby.

In what was a stellar afternoon for the Ashford, Kent, set-up of the McNairs and the KSS Syndicate, litter brothers King Memphis and King Capaldi struck in their respective semi-finals, while another littermate King Combs also qualified for this week's £10,000 decider, as did kennelmate Queen Dusty.

It means the McNairs will be four-handed in the GBGB Category One showpiece with King Memphis the one to beat on the clock after he took three spots off the previous best of 28.69sec set by Eclipse finalist Clona Duke during the English Derby when making all in 28.66sec (normal) for the one-lap distance.

Quickly into stride, the December 2021 son of Droopys Sydney and Queen Beyonce was soon clear and, heading across to the rails, turned on the style to race away for a seven and a quarter lengths success over litter brother Kings Combs, who stayed on best to grab second from Droopys Eddie (Maxine Locke) on the run for home.

Another member of the winner's litter, King Capaldi, also showed up well from the get-go in the first semi-final and, coming through a duel with the always-handy Coolavanny Mercy (Angela Harrison), crossed the line two a three-quarter lengths clear of the Romford Puppy Cup runner-up and Queen Dusty, a kennelmate of the winner, in 29.07sec (normal).

James Chalkley, director of racing at Towcester, said: "It's a truly fantastic final and the first thing I must say is well done to Liz and Rab McNair. However the final pans out - and we know in greyhound racing and sport anything can happen - their achievement in qualifying four runners through to the final is quite something.

"And the fact three of the four are from the same litter is just incredible and must be so satisfying for Rab and Liz and all the team at their kennels. They've watched these youngsters from their first steps at the kennels to winning races in Cat One events - and, in King Memphis's case, breaking the track record.

"And that's definitely something when you think we're talking about a pup breaking a track record in November. It was a good track record of Clona Duke's, too.

"Thankfully this year's RPGTV English Puppy Derby has been less eventful than last year and all the talking has been about what's happened on the track. I think we've all learned from last year and it's just great to be concentrating on some top-class racing."

Trap draw for Sunday's RPGTV English Puppy Derby Final: 1 King Capaldi, 2 King Combs, 3 King Memphis, 4 Coolavanny Mercy (m), 5 Droopys Eddie (m), 6 Queen Dusty (w).

GUIDANCE FOR OWNERS AND TRAINERS: SAMPLE WRITTEN AGREEMENTS

GBGB strongly recommends that a written agreement is in place for the training of any racing greyhound. This is to ensure both the owner(s) and trainer have complete clarity on the arrangements involved and responsibilities for the greyhound's ongoing care and welfare.

We are, therefore, making available two sample agreements for owners and trainers, which you are free to use if you wish to do so:

- The first agreement applies to greyhounds that have four or fewer owners.
- The second agreement applies to syndicates with more than four owners.

"On occasion, we are contacted by owners or trainers when something has gone wrong between them. When we investigate, it is almost always the case that the agreement between owner(s) and trainer wasn't written down. Often people don't know where they stand and, sometimes, there can be a great deal of money involved.

"The sample written agreements we are providing take into account the sorts of issues most commonly brought to our attention – to help head these off before any potential problems can develop. We hope they are a useful tool for owners and trainers alike, but whether or not you choose to use GBGB's sample versions or your own adaptation, I must emphasise the importance of putting your agreement in writing."

Ian Foster, GBGB Owners' Practitioner Director

Accessing the sample agreements

You can download these templates on the 'Ownership' pages of the GBGB website. Alternatively, you can request copies by emailing info@gbgb.org.uk

These templates are in Word format so that you can edit them, insert your details where marked and then print the document to be signed and dated. You can also make additional amendments as you wish to reflect your circumstances.

Both forms are prepared on the basis that there will be an ongoing kennel bill payable by the owner(s) to the trainer. We strongly recommend that this is the basis on which your trainer agrees to train your greyhound. Arrangements where the trainer keeps run and prize money and does not charge the owner a regular bill are not recommended. This is a high-risk approach which can lead to debt and financial difficulty and is not in the spirit of responsible ownership.

Everyone should understand that an owner's responsibility extends beyond the racing life of their greyhound and continues, both financially and otherwise, until that greyhound has been placed in its forever home.

If you have any questions about the template agreements, please contact GBGB at the email address above.

Where's Jonny: It's a job to spot Arc Sunderland Classic winner Jonny Whiskers in among his legion of followers. Trained by Harry Burton and handled by Glenn Foot, this talented white and black powered his way to victory in front of a packed grandstand last Friday night and will now head for next month's All England Cup at Newcastle. Said Harry: "Big credit to Glenn and Billy Jo Duncan. She's a veterinary nurse by trade and is a great help to us here. Next stop Newcastle."

So long Steve: Connections of the much-loved Goldies Perryman, aka Steve, have called time after a memorable career on the track. Trained by Paul Foster, Steve has provided his owners with a huge amount of entertainment over the last few years, won an admirable 20 open races taking on the best in training, and will continue to be fussed over by his fans in retirement.

Santa squad: Connections of the Belinda Green-trained Touchdown Theo brought some early festive cheer to proceedings at Hove last Friday and celebrated with a win before heading off for an 80s music weekend! It was also new kennelhand Eliza Eade's first day parading and she could not have got off to a better start.

Royal performance: King Capaldi (T3) and Coolavanny Mercy (T4) go hammer and tongs into the first bend in the RPGTV English Puppy Derby semi-finals at Towcester, going on to finish in that order and booking themselves a place in Sunday's decider.
