GREYHOUND NUTRITION WORKSHOP, SPAYING
ADVICE AND THE LATEST OPEN RACE INFORMATION

Bin there, done that: Full-time binman and now Cat One winning trainer Ray Hale (second right) realised his dream when landing the Premier Greyhound Racing All England Cup with Swift Silly who simply romped home in the £20k final at Newcastle last week in a sizzling 28.48sec. Owned by Michael Thompson, she is one of a small number of racers at Hale's Ashington base and this daughter of Pestana looks very much one to follow on the open race circuit this year.

Trainer Workshop: Racing Greyhound Nutrition

Later this month, GBGB is hosting a free trainer workshop with Dr Teresa Hollands, Senior Lecturer in Veterinary Nutrition at the University of Surrey, to explore the nutrition of racing greyhounds. The session will focus on how we can ensure all racing greyhounds are being fed the best diet at every stage of their careers.

The event will be held at Nottingham Greyhound Stadium on 20th January 2024, between 11 am – 3 pm.

All GBGB licensed trainers and kennelhands are invited to attend and lunch will be provided.

GBGB is proud to partner with Time Nutrition for this workshop and attendees will receive a goodie bag from them on the day.

About the speaker

Dr Hollands is an internationally renowned animal nutritionist with over thirty years of clinical practice. In addition to working as both a multi-species practitioner and an equine nutrition specialist, she has been an advisor to the feed industry and has sat on various industry committees. She is currently teaching at Surrey University, where she teaches animal nutrition to veterinary medicine and veterinary biosciences students.

How to register

Please email Meriel France (GBGB Learning and Development Manager) to secure your place: meriel.france@gbgb.org.uk

BRIGHTON CHOSEN AS NEXT LOCATION FOR GBGB'S ANNUAL AWARDS

~ A date and venue has been set for the GBGB Awards 2023: Sunday 3rd March 2024 at the Doubletree by Hilton Brighton Metropole ~

~ Following Sheffield's much-praised event, the 2024 Brighton venue offers another excellent weekend of racing alongside the gala occasion ~

The Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) is pleased to announce that the 2023 Greyhound of the Year Awards will be heading to Brighton. It will take place on Sunday 3rd March at the Doubletree by Hilton Brighton Metropole.

Following an excellent, well-received event hosted at The OEC overlooking Sheffield's Owlerton Stadium in February, the Awards will continue to spotlight the country's prime racing spots in Great Britain – this time in Brighton and Hove.

With a full racing schedule due on the Saturday night at Hove Greyhound Stadium, the sport's trainers, owners, enthusiasts and supporters are encouraged to mark their cards for the event.

In reflecting on the successes of 2023's impressive racing calendar, the Awards will once again spotlight the best and most memorable performances of our canine athletes and pay credit to the teams and individuals behind their success. With so many exceptional moments to highlight from the year, it promises to be close competition for the Awards, not least for Greyhound of the Year.

Mark Bird, CEO at GBGB, said:

"It is always a pleasure to welcome people from across the sport to celebrate the year's achievements and the efforts of everyone who plays a role in its enduring success. We are very pleased that Brighton will be the location for the 2023 Awards."

"We will continue to look to move the Awards around the country, taking into account cost, accessibility and of course the ability for a venue to best help present our annual showcase of the sporting year."

"As always, numbers will be limited so please do save the date and keep an eye out for announcements early in the New Year about tickets and promotions."

Ticketing information and promotional offers will follow in the New Year. Keep up to date by following @GreyhoundBoard on Twitter/X or GBGB's pages on Facebook and Instagram.

NOMINATIONS OPEN FOR GBGB KENNELHAND OF THE YEAR 2023

Nominations are now open for the Kennelhand of the Year Award, the GBGB announced today.

This prestigious accolade honours one exceptional kennelhand for their commitment to caring for their greyhounds and is presented at the annual awards ceremony each year.

Anyone involved in the industry can nominate a kennelhand who they believe has shown tremendous dedication, and regularly goes that extra mile. Nominations should be emailed to awards@gbgb.org.uk with the subject line ‘Kennelhand of the Year 2023’ and should include the nominee’s name and a brief description of why they are a deserving recipient, as well as the contact details of the person submitting the nomination. Nominations must be received by Sunday 21st January 2024.

The winner will receive £500, two tickets to the Awards Ceremony and accommodation as well as the coveted Kennelhand of the Year trophy.

Mark Bird, CEO of GBGB said:

“Kennelhands are the unsung heroes of our sport and often work long unsociable hours transporting greyhounds to the tracks, day in, day out, while providing outstanding levels of care.

“There is a mountain of work which goes on behind the scenes to ensure that our athletes are fit, healthy and at their best for racing, and this award recognises this unwavering commitment. It shines a light on individuals who go above and beyond and is our chance to applaud their work and the love that they have for their hounds.”

SPAYING OF GREYHOUNDS: GUIDANCE FOR TRAINERS

Female greyhounds' racing careers will be naturally disrupted during their 'season' as they are not eligible to race during this time and will therefore require re-trialing to resume graded racing. There are three options available to trainers for managing seasonal breaks:

- 1) You can elect to withdraw a bitch from racing once she breaks in season and not trial or race for a minimum period of 21 days. Many trainers prefer a longer lay-off to account for the inconsistent form shown by in the weeks following a season. Following longer periods of seasonal lay-off bitches can lose race fitness and prolonged time off weakens bone and muscle tissue.
- 2) You may suppress seasonal activity by administering a GBGB-approved hormonal suppressant (e.g. norethisterone) which must be prescribed for that specific greyhound by a veterinary surgeon.
- 3) If you do not intend to breed from the bitch in the future, you may opt to have her spayed. This can be done at a time when they are resting for another reason, such as minor injury. Spaying traditionally involves the removal of the reproductive tract (ovaries and uterus) from a bitch. Laparoscopic spaying is a 'keyhole' surgical procedure that involves removal of only the ovaries. Although spaying is a surgical procedure, most greyhound bitches are fit to resume racing within a matter of weeks.

Studies¹ undertaken at the request of the GBGB Welfare and Veterinary Standing Committee have shown that there is no significant loss in performance following the spaying of racing greyhound bitches compared with bitches between seasons, and that there are significant losses in the performance of entire bitches after a season.

Once spayed, a bitch can resume racing without the disadvantage of seasonal lay-off or continued use of suppressants. This can have many welfare and cost benefits, as well as major health benefits to the bitch such as the removal of the risk of pyometra (uterus/womb infection) and a reduced risk of developing mammary tumours ('breast cancer') in later life. Furthermore, once a bitch retires from racing, she can be moved into the homing schemes and can potentially be homed more quickly. This will reduce the financial burden on the various routes for retirement for greyhounds.

Following spaying, bitches should be restricted to short lead walks for the first 2 weeks and can then usually resume normal exercise with a view to resuming racing at 5 weeks post-spay. If there are any complications following spaying, then return to exercise should be under the guidance of the veterinary surgeon.
