AND OPEN RACE INFORMATION

Double-handed: Bogger Rambo heads full thrust into the first bend on his way to winning his opening heat of the Ladbrokes Winter Derby at Monmore and is one of two runners to represent trainer Tom Heilbron in tomorrow's £10k decider. The other, Links Maverick, needs no introduction and goes in search of his fourth Cat One success in a final of the finest quality. Liz McNair also fields two, King Sydney and the talented King Capaldi, and you can't rule out Richie Taberner's Aero Sacundai or Kent Derby hero Churchfield Syd, trained by Richard Rees. Very much a race to savour. Off at 1.33pm. DO NOT MISS THIS!

HIGH-CLASS FEEL TO TOMORROW'S £10K CAT ONE LADBROKES WINTER DERBY FINAL AT MONMORE

THE Ladbrokes Winter Derby Final at Monmore tomorrow looks nothing short of sensational after last weekend's semi-finals produced high-class performances and great stories in equal measure – not least the return to the winner's enclosure of Links Maverick.

Tom Heilbron's multiple Category One winner, a leading nominee for the GBGB Greyhound of the Year awards at the Metropole in Brighton on March 3, roared back to winning form in the first semi-final of the £10,000-to-the-winner annual as he initiated a brilliant double for the Newcastle handler.

Blasting to the front in the 480m contest – a crackerjack affair against Churchfield Syd (Richard Rees) and Coolavanny Shado (Patrick Janssens) – Links Maverick was soon in command off the back of a slick 4.32sec and kept up the gallop to the winning line to land a two-length win from Churchfield Syd in 28.09sec (normal).

Kennelmate Bogger Rambo (pictured) then completed the Heilbron double as the ex-Irish runner – he was second to Pape Di Oro in last year's Tipperary Cup at Thurles – impressively made it five wins from six UK starts with an impressive off-the-front victory

Quickly away on route to a 4.33sec sectional, the Premier Greyhound Racing All England Cup finalist raced away for a two and a quarter lengths success over the keeping-on King Sydney (Liz McNair) in 28.17sec (normal), the pair qualifying for Saturday's final.

Winning trainer Heilbron, delighted to be double represented in the Wolverhampton feature, was particularly delighted to have Links Maverick back to something like his best after a long spell off the card with a shoulder injury.

"It's been a long road back but there was never a rush with him – we wanted to give him as much time as possible," said Heilbron. "Of course it was disappointing to miss some of those end-of-season targets after he did the shoulder at Sunderland in the (Arc) Classic, but then you look at his record and think that was some year!

"He always needed the run in the heats but you see the pace he showed – he just blew up late on and did well to qualify," added Heilbron. "Even so, Saturday took me by surprise – not his pace, which we know is incredible, but he stayed on so much better and another week will surely be in his favour. That said, it's some final!"

Heilbron also heaped praise on Bogger Rambo. "For many, he's probably playing second fiddle to Maverick, but not to us. He's a top-class dog in his own right and has done brilliantly since joining us. He's only been beaten once – and that was in (Premier Greyhound Racing) All England Cup so is in there absolutely on merit.

"It's a fantastic final and we know Maverick has got to come away and lead Richie's (Taberner) dog inside (Aero Sacundai) and you feel Rambo needs to do the same or miss it and allow King Capaldi across him – we know he'll be heading for the rails. Class-wise it's a great line-up and brilliant to be a part of."

Like Heilbron, Liz McNair will be doubly handed in the decider with litter-brothers King Sydney and King Capaldi after the latter raced to a fastest-of-the-session 4.27sec sectional and a best overall semi-final time of 28.01sec with another exceptional effort from the hugely talented home-bred.

Winner now of 14 of 17 starts, the Puppy Derby runner-up and Produce Stakes third was always bossing proceedings with the race for second proving an intriguing one, with locally trained Aero Sacundai (Richie Taberner) keeping the McNairs' Queen Joni at bay to give Monmore serious interest in Saturday's cracking final.

Trap draw for Saturday's final: 1 Aero Sacundai, 2 Links Maverick, 3 King Sydney, 4 Bogger Rambo, 5 King Capaldi, 6 Churchfield Syd (w).

"IT'S A GREAT COMPETITION AGAIN WITH MANY, MANY CHANCES HEADING INTO TOMORROW'S SEMIS" - CRAYFORD RM DANNY RAYMENT

COONOUGH CROW (pictured) emulated kennelmate Minnie Bullet's feat 12 months previously when clocking the fastest heat time as the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket kicked off over 714m at Crayford last Saturday.

With Minnie Bullet also on the card – incidentally setting the fastest time in the heats of the Peter Bussey Memorial Trophy – Coonough Crow initiated a treble on the day for Mark Wallis and a double in the Golden Jacket heats for the Imperial Kennels handler, although it is another Wallis-trained runner whom Crayford racing manager Danny Rayment feels remains the one to beat in the famous competition.

He said: "I think New Destiny arguably enhanced her reputation on Saturday with a battling effort in defeat behind Bubbly Scorchers and can see why she's still favourite, but it's a great competition again with many, many chances heading into tomorrow's semis."

Rayment singled out Bellmore Sally for special mention given the winner of the last two runnings of the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket reached the semi-finals after a game display behind Haka Carlo and an historic third title is still a possibility for Jimmy Fenwick's now senior performer.

Rayment added: "I'd really love to see Bellmore Sally make the final again but she's obviously not been helped by being in the red-hot third semi-final.

"It's the first two through and she's against a couple of heat winners in Queen Pink and Ballymac Taylor, as well as New Destiny, but we know how much Sally loves Crayford. She's won two Golden Jackets and a TV Trophy here – plus run a close second in the (Jay & Kay Coach Tours) Kent St Leger, so if any greyhound can do so at her age she might!"

Coonough Crow heads into Saturday's semi-finals as best on the Golden Jacket clock after winning heat four for Mark Wallis as last year's (Arc) Grand Prix winner produced a battling but ultimately impressive performance to lead home Dazl Rolex in 44.99sec (+40), completing a first-round double for her trainer after Ballymac Taylor had come from last to first to win heat one in 45.39sec as the (Arc) Cesarewitch runner-up overhauled Tuona Bella (Paul Donovan) close home for a half-length success.

The Nathan Hunt-trained Haka Carlo later made it a littermate double as Ballymac Taylor's brother showed plenty of class himself with a heat two victory, pacing up to lead off the second bend and going on to score readily in 45.10sec (+40) from reigning champion Bellmore Sally (Jimmy Fenwick) and Bet365 Challenge Cup winner Havana Top Note – the latter securing his place as one of three semi-finalists for Liz McNair, who matched Mark Wallis's feat with a Golden Jacket heat double.

McNair's Queen Pink made all the running in heat five to score in 45.26sec (+40) from Breton Molly (Patrick Janssens) and Bubbly Inferno (Paul Young), before the kennel's Havana Lover, the 2022 St Leger champion, landed the sixth and final heat narrowly from Droopys Flotilla (Nathan Hunt) in 45.57sec (+40).

Bubbly Inferno's brother Bubbly Scorchers will also line up in Saturday's semis after a cracking effort in winning heat two, reeling in pace-setting Low Pressure (Belinda Green) down the back second time for a two-and-a-quarter length success over the rallying New Destiny (Mark Wallis) and Homestead Anna (Michelle Brown). The winning time was 45.17sec (+40).

BIG DAY OUT FOR TRAINER SEAN WHITE WHO BAGS HIS BIGGEST CAREER SUCCESS TO DATE WITH BROADWAY MURTY IN BET365 NORTHAMPTONSHIRE SPRINT FINAL

BROADWAY MURTY landed owner-trainer Sean White his biggest success to date with a popular victory in the Bet365 Northamptonshire Sprint Final at Towcester last Sunday which, for part-owner Josh Naylor, proved very much a case of beginner's luck.

"Murty is the first dog Josh has been involved in, so he probably thinks it's easy now!" said White of Taylor, 22, a friend of White's son Thomas who is credited with getting his dad back in the game after a spell away. However, the 'Broadway' prefix, after Tooting Broadway in south London, close to where White lives and where he works as a fishmonger in the market, is very much alive and well again!

"I'm enjoying my racing and days like this make it even more enjoyable!" he added. "Towcester were brilliant with us, as were sponsors Bet365, and I thank both for their support and backing the event. I think they ended up with a top-class final and really couldn't have asked for much in terms overall quality."

Broadway Murty lined up against hot favourite Quarteira (Mark Wallis), who had gone close to the track record in the heats, and Romford Puppy Cup winner Romeo Crusade (David Mullins). However, a bullet break saw the February 2022 son of Ballymac Best and Blackstone May soon in command and on his way to victory in the £3,000-to-the-winner Category Two competition, the youngster impressing all and sundry.

Striding impressively clear on the dash to the bend, Broadway Murty never looked in trouble as White's youngster crossed the line three lengths clear of Romeo Crusade, with local hope Letitwithme (Reggie Alder) in third - completing an unbeaten run through the event in the process. The winning time was a super-slick 15.50sec (+5).

Winning trainer White, who secured Broadway Murty from Micky Taggart, has toyed with the upcoming Coral Golden Sprint at Romford for his young star but might keep his runner to sprinting and was just delighted with how he trapped, having his best break for when it mattered most in the 270m final.

"That was his fourth win in a row at Towcester and I couldn't fault the way he was running - he just wasn't really breaking that well, although was pacing up well enough! He's certainly saved his best break for last, but then again I'd probably say he was just getting used to the traps there and that might have been the difference.

"He's sprinting so well I might not go for Romford now, but we'll see. There's not a huge amount around but the (Arc) Silver Salver at Central Park and the sprint on Derby final night back at Towcester could be targets. It might be one-offs in between but I'm just enjoying the moment for now - and so is Josh!"

Pat Cooney of sponsors Bet365 said: "Congratulations to Sean and his family - and to Josh (Naylor), of course. It's a brilliant story and Murty is one very fast sprinter whom I think Sean will have a great rest of year with. He's still very young, remember, so winning our Northamptonshire Sprint against some seasoned sorts really was a special effort.

"It was a great sponsorship and we ended up with a high-class final. Well done to all."

UKAS ACCREDITATION FOR GBGB KENNELS SCHEME

The Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) is delighted to announce that Supply Chain In-Sites (SCI) has achieved UKAS accreditation for the GBGB Greyhound Trainers Residential Kennels Scheme. This means that both GBGB-licensed racecourses and residential kennels are now assessed and awarded UKAS-accredited certificates.

This extension further highlights GBGB's continued commitment to welfare and care through applied and annually inspected independent standards across greyhound racing in Great Britain.

Since 2020, every greyhound trainer licensed by GBGB has been required to have their kennels inspected annually by external auditors. This external inspection is in addition to regular visits by GBGB's field force of Stipendiary Stewards, as well as an annual veterinary inspection.

The GBGB Kennel Scheme aims to ensure consistent kennelling practices, in accordance with the BSI PAS 251:2017 'Greyhound Residential Kennels' technical specification, which was developed by a steering group of interested stakeholders. This provides an independent kennel standard for racing greyhounds that supports good welfare practices.

This is in addition to the guidance provided by GBGB's Code of Practice for Residential Kennels, which provides a thorough, evidence-based guide to all aspects of greyhound care for trainers and kennel staff to use in their day-to-day operations.

Commenting on the news, Mark Bird, GBGB Chief Executive, said:

"Extending the UKAS accreditation to include the inspection of residential kennels was a key short-term objective within our welfare strategy, 'A Good Life for Every Greyhound', so we are pleased to have achieved it."

"To secure this accreditation, the Scheme Standard and SCI have been through a thorough and robust process as part of which we have provided unequivocal evidence of the sport's welfare standards. This accreditation therefore provides further proof of our commitment to welfare and the clear standards required for our athletes throughout their racing careers."

Dave Walker, from SCI, added:

"We are delighted to work with GBGB. Achieving accreditation of the scheme will result in the GBGB-licensed trainers being recognised and certified for their hard work in maintaining and promoting welfare standards within the greyhound industry."

WELSH CONSULTATION

With only two weeks remaining on the Welsh consultation on licensing of animal activities, we'd like to thank everyone who has so far submitted a response.

We urge everyone, particularly those with a connection to Wales, to consider entering an individual response before the consultation closes on the 1st March. You can respond to the consultation here: <https://www.gov.wales/licensing-animal-welfare-establishments-activities-and-exhibits>

As a sport, we are keen to highlight how it supports livelihoods and, importantly, how a regulated sport is the only way to safeguard greyhound welfare.

REGULATORY VETERINARY SURGEON VACANCY, EAST MIDLANDS/EAST ANGLIA

The Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) is the governing body for licensed greyhound racing in England, Scotland, and Wales. As well as overseeing Stadia and the running of each race and trial, we are responsible for regulating the welfare and care of all racing greyhounds, from registration to retirement.

Welfare is of the upmost importance and the top priority for the GBGB, as reflected in the recently published 5 year Welfare Strategy (<https://www.gbgb.org.uk/welfare-care/commitment-to-care/>) which covers all stages of a racing greyhound's life. To support the delivery of the Welfare Strategy and the GBGB's commitment to optimising greyhound welfare, the GBGB has created five new Regional Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon roles.

Having filled four vacancies, we still require a Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon to cover East Midlands/East Anglia.

The Regional Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon will report to the Veterinary Executive. Functions will include:

- Upholding the GBGB's Rules of Racing in matters relating directly and indirectly to greyhound welfare.
- Acting as a point of reference and support for Track Veterinary Surgeons in respect of their regulatory functions.
- Working closely with and supporting the field staff of Stipendiary Stewards, both at tracks and at trainers' residential kennels.
- Conducting annual veterinary kennel inspections at trainers' residential kennels.

Candidates will be Members or Fellows of the RCVS. You must have broad clinical skills and a minimum of two years' experience working in veterinary practice. A post graduate qualification in animal welfare or other relevant discipline would be desirable. Experience of working in animal sports or with an animal welfare charity would also be desirable.

The position will involve travel and independent working and therefore candidates must be able to work unsupervised and hold a clean and valid driving licence. Candidates must also be prepared to work flexibly and outside of usual working hours when required to do so.

This is a full time, non-clinical position and will be field based.

For a job description, requirements, and person specification, please contact Zoë Brown.

To apply for this position, please email a copy of your CV, together with a covering letter detailing how you fit the criteria specification to Zoë Brown, HR Manager, at zoe.brown@gbgb.org.uk
