GREYHOUND HEALTH WEBINAR, ALL THE LATEST BIG RACE NEWS AND OPEN RACE INFORMATION

Perfect timing: Dazl Rolex proved the ideal tonic for trainer Ricky Holloway in winning the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket at Crayford last Saturday, his fifth winner of the day. "The previous weekend I collapsed and was fighting for my life in hospital," said Ricky. "I'm fully recovered now and thanks to everyone for their support, it means the world. This is my proudest moment training greyhounds." Ricky (bottom right) is joined on the podium with kennelhands Christine Rose and Sam Mavrias, Hazel Bird, co-owners owners Roger Cearn and Tony Brealey, and (kneeling) Jamie Mavrias. A delighted co-owner and Dazl Rolex's breeder Dolores Ruth faceted shortly after the race to pass on her best.

PERFECT TIMING FROM ROLEX WHO LANDS RICKY HOLLOWAY HIS BIGGEST SUCCESS IN PREMIER GREYHOUND RACING GOLDEN JACKET AT CRAYFORD

DAZL ROLEX has a possible date at Towcester for the Star Sports English Greyhound Derby after timing it right to land Ricky Holloway his biggest success as a trainer on the flat with a rare locally trained triumph in the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket at Crayford - on the 50th running of the 714m Category One annual.

Not since Patsy Cusack's Walk The Line crossed the line in front in 2007 has a Crayford-trained finalist landed the spoils but a powerful effort from the Dolores Ruth-bred November 2021 son of Superior Panama and Razldazl Mya saw him catch Havana Top Note close home for a length victory in 45.03sec (+30).

The Liz McNair-trained Challenge Cup winner had set a searing gallop in the £20,000 decider but Dazl Rolex, who lined up as the youngest finalists for owners Tony Brealey, former Central Park promoter Roger Cearns and Dolores Ruth herself, was always handy before outstaying his rival - capping a brilliant day for Holloway.

In addition to winning the main event, the Essex-based handler, who has rewritten the record books given his success with hurdlers, had four other successes at the meeting for a superb five-timer - including success in the £1,000 David Wicks Memorial Trophy with Similar Display for owners Dave Cunningham and Kurn Rushen.

Holloway, who has intimated a crack at the Derby might be on cards for Dazl Rolex after a bid for the Bet365 Hunt Cup at Oxford, beginning next month, and a return to Crayford for the Jay & Kay Coach Tours Kent St Leger, thanked management at the Kent track for staging a brilliant card full of variety and said they should be congratulated.

"The Golden Jacket is one of the best meetings of the year and the competition is always of the highest quality and winning the 50th running was my best moment in greyhound racing," he said. "Also, winning it with a local dog - and the youngest finalist, albeit with the oldest trainer! - was definitely extra special, too.

"The racing office at Crayford are the best in the business and are excellent at putting on an event - just look at what they did on Saturday with hurdles races over four and six bends, three marathons including a 1,048m race, and lots of competition finals.

"So to win five races on the day - and two finals - really was amazing and I've got to thank the staff who put so much into working with the greyhounds. At the kennels we have a wonderful team led by Jamie Mavrias and they deserve to take a great deal of the credit.

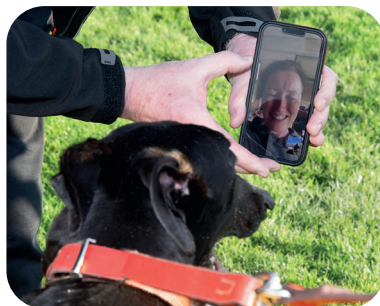

"I really wasn't too well a couple of weeks back, just as the Golden Jacket started, but Jamie held the fort and Saturday was the tonic I needed!"

Holloway explained how he took a call from Dolores Ruth telling him she was sending him the Golden Jacket winner!

"That's exactly what she said," he explained. "Next week the dog arrived and I gave him one trial and I knew she was right. He's still young so there is a lot of improvement to come and he's very lightly raced. All things been well it'll be Oxford and then back to Crayford - and then maybe Towcester, we'll see.

"I can't remember a day like it with five winners out of the 12 races and every dog from the kennel running to their best level. A big thanks to all the owners in the kennel because without them we don't exist and don't have days we dream of.

"I'd also like to say a big thank-you to the other finalists who were so sporting when I won with their congratulations. It was much appreciated."

POWERFUL DISPLAY FROM NATHAN HUNT'S ALLOWDALE CAZOO SEES HER HOME IN PETER BUSSEY MEMORIAL TROPHY FINAL

ALLOWDALE CAZOO produced a stirring finish to claim a narrow and last-gasp victory in the Peter Bussey Memorial Trophy Final at Crayford on Saturday.

The £5,000-to-the-winner GBGB Category Two decider was the main supporting competition to the Premier Greyhound Racing Golden Jacket Final - and the youngest finalist in both events claimed gold. With Ricky Holloway's Dazl Rolex later winning the Golden Jacket, it was the Nathan Hunt-trained October 2021 daughter of Droopys Sydney and Allowdale Coco who landed the spoils for the owning Nathan Hunt Racing Club.

Hopes Paddington, a kennelmate of the eventual winner, had broken into front but got held up at the bend as Ritzy Empress (Jim Reynolds), herself showing great early pace, swooped round the second bend in front - crucially getting first run on 5-4 favourite Minnie Bullet (Mark Wallis) - and set sail for home in the 540m contest.

However, Allowdale Cazoo was never far from the action and kept up the pressure in behind, her wider course securing a clearer path as her rivals jostled for position in behind. Closing on the leader all the way up the home-straight, Allowdale Cazoo got up in the shadow of the post for a short-head victory over Ritzy Empress in 33.69sec (+20), with Minnie Bullet back in third.

The victory delighted trainer Hunt and the owning Nathan Hunt Racing Club which, for Allowdale Cazoo, comprises Patrick Huckle, Jack Bingham, Alex Miller, Chris Williams, Peter Sandbach, Nathan Cuff, John Lamb, Len Sweeney, Sam Barron and the trainer himself who has outlined the Coral Brighton Belle as Allowdale Cazoo's next target.

"It's a stiff four bends there which suits Cazoo and she's clearly running well - and is young enough to improve," he said. "It's great to win a big race here at Crayford - it's a great track always looking to do different things, and nice to win the Peter Bussey given we had a finalist a couple of years back with Doghouse Dazzler, who's just been retired."

A finalist in the Puppy Classic at Nottingham last year, Allowdale Cazoo also reached the semi-finals of the Oaks and was purchased by the team at Hunt's Cambridgeshire base after a 28.87sec Tralee win. She has also won over 575m at Romford.

"Cazoo caught my eye in an unraced stake at Tralee and probably wasn't expected to be this good," said Hunt, "but we did deal a deal with Aine Roche, who was a pleasure to deal with, and her performances mean she probably deserves to land a decent title.

"I'm just delighted for the lads. Patrick (Huckle) couldn't be with us today but I know was watching the race by the side of a football pitch seeing his boy play. It's just great to see many of the lads here and they'll certainly enjoy this victory."

CHURCHFIELD SYD TO HEAD FOR KENT PLATE AT CENTRAL PARK AFTER BRILLIANT VICTORY IN LADBROKES WINTER DERBY

CHURCHFIELD SYD gained revenge over Links Maverick when it mattered most to claim a brilliant victory in the Ladbrokes Winter Derby Final at Monmore.

The Richard Rees-trained runner, winner of the Premier Greyhound Racing Kent Derby at Central Park in October, had finished second to Tom Heilbron's star in all rounds of last year's Ladbrokes Gold Cup over C&D plus had chased home the Newcastle dog in the semi-finals of the Winter Derby just seven days previously.

However, as the sole wide seed, Churchfield Syd always looked a huge player and a fast start on the outside put him quickly in the driving seat against a high-class field.

In front after a matter of strides, King Capaldi then produced a devastating turn of pace to lead into the turn and, with the remainder of the field involved in crowding in behind as they jostled for position, King Capaldi and Churchfield Syd had the race between them as Liz McNair's runner roared into the third bend in front.

The Hove raider was never far from the off the pace, however, and kept up the pressure to pounce as King Capaldi began to tire with the June 2021 son of Droopys Sydney and Millbank Jade hitting the front off the last bend for a length and a half victory from the Central Park speedster, with Tom Heilbron's pair of Bogger Rambo and Links Maverick third and fourth respectively.

Success in the £10,000 event landed Churchfield Syd a second Category One title which would never have seemed likely after he suffered a muscle injury when leading in last year's semi-finals of the Premier Greyhound Racing Puppy Derby, also at Monmore. Some feared he might never see the track again, let alone win a major competition.

"We all feared the worst, for sure," said Charlie Rees, son and kennelhand for his father Richard, "but we gave him plenty of time, brought him back slowly, and he's just been brilliant. I'm especially delighted for his owners – Steve and Billy Evans, and Darryl Bear – and for us as a team we like this competition!"

Having sent out the runner-up in 2021 in Amazing Wink, the Rees team won the 2022 running with Burnchurch Mick, also owned by Bear, who then ran-up to Coolavanny Shado in last year's final. Victory for Churchfield Syd therefore means two wins and two seconds in the Ladbrokes Winter Derby for the Hove handler in the last four years.

"We love coming here – and so, too, do the dogs!" added Rees junior. "It's a competition we've now won twice and had a couple of seconds in also, but only because Churchfield Syd ran great. We were delighted with how trapped when he needed to and showed a lot of maturity to back-run Capaldi.

"That's two major comps he's won now and we'll probably head back to Central Park for the (Arc) Kent Plate and, all being well, it's the (Star Sports English Greyhound) Derby. That's the main aim and make a plan solely around that."

Paul Mason, Monmore general manager, said: "Congratulations to everyone connected with Churchfield Syd and well done to connections of our finalists, too. It was the best line-up for a Ladbrokes Winter Derby final we've had and everyone who joined us on Saturday morning thoroughly enjoyed it. Roll on the Premier Greyhound Racing Puppy Derby now!"

NORTHERN PUPPY DERBY CHAMP CLONA CURLY HAS STAR SPORTS GREYHOUND DERBY AT TOWCESTER AS MAIN TARGET

CLONA CURLY has the ultimate target of the Star Sports English Greyhound Derby at the track run by his owner after winning the Arena Racing Company Northern Puppy Derby Final at Newcastle on Thursday.

Trained by Diane Henry for Towcester promoter Kevin Boothby, the strapping 37-kilo April 2022 son of Droopys Sydney and Newinn Cuckoo proved too strong for gallant Romford raider Droopys Eunice to claim the £12,500 prize and land a second victory in the 480m competition after her beloved Ten Large Down struck gold in 2010 when the famous event was held at Sunderland.

A staying-on second in both his heat and semi-final, Clona Curly saved his best start in the event for when it mattered most, pacing up to turn second behind pace-setting Droopys Eunice who made a good start herself inside.

One of two Maxine Locke-trained runners in the decider along with Droopys Display, Droopys Eunice set the tempo down the back and, while the pair now had the race between them after the remainder jostled for position behind, Clona Curly always looked set to prove the stronger and challenged for the lead at the third bend before asserting and going on for a three-and-a-quarter length success.

Droopys Eunice claimed the runner-up spot ahead of Coppice Ella (Kevin Hutton) who stayed on for third. The winning time was a fast 28.23sec (+10) for the 28.25sec Cork winner who was unlucky to be knocked out at the semi-final stage of the National Puppy Stake at Shelbourne Park in November when denied a place in the final after being hampered by a loose runner who rejoined the race.

The victory delighted winning trainer Diane Henry, who explained how she came by the youngster and how Thursday's success was so special for many reasons – not least following Ten Large Down's success all those years ago.

"Thursday was just brilliant but it was the way he won which was special," said Henry. "He'd been improving each week – it took him a few runs to get the hang of Newcastle – but how he got out on the night and the pace he showed was brilliant, especially the change of pace from the third to the fourth bend. That's the kind of run to really get you excited seeing that in a greyhound so young.

"He did everything right in the final which is what was needed with some really nice pups in the race. He needed to get a good pitch round the first two bends to avoid any trouble but to see him come away like he did was everything I hoped for but didn't expect!

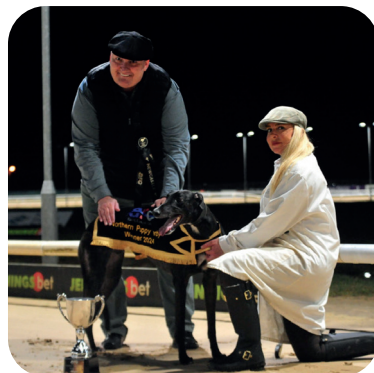

"It was a friend of mine in Ireland, Davy Sutton, who first rang me. He said Kevin O'Brien potentially might be selling Clona Curly so I checked him out and immediately rang him back to make a bid as I liked what I saw. He lacked early but the pace was there and, being so young, I thought he had time to develop this. If so, we could have a top dog. He's very exciting but again you just take each race as it comes with any dog.

"Winning the Northern Puppy Derby again was special. Ten Large Down was on my mind, of course, him winning this event all those years ago for me. I've not long lost him at the age of 15 and a half years old, so I know he was with us on Thursday.

"The Monmore Puppy Derby is next. I gave him his qualifying trials there as part of the plan to switch him back if all goes well at Newcastle, as I knew I wouldn't have to enough time for him to get familiar with the track if not.

"I'd like to say a big thank-you to everyone up at Newcastle, especially Ian Walton (general manager) and all the staff. They are so welcoming and the local trainers, too, are always lovely, so it's a real pleasure to go there. It's hard to beat the locals round Newcastle as track knowledge is worth lengths there, so it's nice to finally win a big one at the track. Thank you to everyone again – I feel very blessed.

"A big well done to Kevin Boothby, too. Hopefully, that will give him a real boost for the year now."

REGULATORY VETERINARY SURGEON VACANCY, EAST MIDLANDS/EAST ANGLIA

The Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) is the governing body for licensed greyhound racing in England, Scotland, and Wales. As well as overseeing Stadia and the running of each race and trial, we are responsible for regulating the welfare and care of all racing greyhounds, from registration to retirement.

Welfare is of the upmost importance and the top priority for the GBGB, as reflected in the recently published 5 year Welfare Strategy (<https://www.gbgb.org.uk/welfare-care/commitment-to-care/>) which covers all stages of a racing greyhound's life. To support the delivery of the Welfare Strategy and the GBGB's commitment to optimising greyhound welfare, the GBGB has created five new Regional Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon roles.

Having filled four vacancies, we still require a Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon to cover East Midlands/East Anglia.

The Regional Regulatory Veterinary Surgeon will report to the Veterinary Executive. Functions will include:

- Upholding the GBGB's Rules of Racing in matters relating directly and indirectly to greyhound welfare.
- Acting as a point of reference and support for Track Veterinary Surgeons in respect of their regulatory functions.
- Working closely with and supporting the field staff of Stipendiary Stewards, both at tracks and at trainers' residential kennels.
- Conducting annual veterinary kennel inspections at trainers' residential kennels.

Candidates will be Members or Fellows of the RCVS. You must have broad clinical skills and a minimum of two years' experience working in veterinary practice. A post graduate qualification in animal welfare or other relevant discipline would be desirable. Experience of working in animal sports or with an animal welfare charity would also be desirable.

The position will involve travel and independent working and therefore candidates must be able to work unsupervised and hold a clean and valid driving licence. Candidates must also be prepared to work flexibly and outside of usual working hours when required to do so.

This is a full time, non-clinical position and will be field based.

For a job description, requirements, and person specification, please contact Zoë Brown.

To apply for this position, please email a copy of your CV, together with a covering letter detailing how you fit the criteria specification to Zoë Brown, HR Manager, at zoe.brown@gbgb.org.uk

GBGB is an equal opportunities employer
