SUPPORTING GREYHOUNDS DURING FIREWORKS

The Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) recognises the distress that fireworks can cause to dogs. To mitigate this, all licensed racecourses must adhere to the GBGB Fireworks Policy, which aims to reduce the risk of greyhounds being exposed to the negative effects of fireworks, whether at the track or in transit.

Assessing risk

While risk levels vary by location, the following dates and events are typically considered high-risk for fireworks:

- Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings surrounding 5th November (Guy Fawkes Night).
- New Year's Eve.
- Cultural celebrations such as Diwali, Chinese New Year, Hogmanay, and other regional events.

It is also important to remain aware of any local events or organised displays throughout the year. Staying informed allows you to take proactive steps to protect your greyhounds.

Measures to consider

You may wish to implement the following tips to keep your greyhounds calm and safe. This is not an exhaustive list, and if you have any concerns or questions regarding specific greyhounds, you should always consult your vet:

- Wherever possible, keep all greyhounds indoors after dark to minimise their exposure to fireworks.
- Consider feeding earlier to allow your greyhound/s to settle well before dusk.
- Ensure that your kennel (or house, if you are caring for a retired greyhound at home) is secure, so that no greyhound can escape or danger themselves if they are spooked by a sudden noise.
- If possible, blackout any windows and skylights. You could also drape blankets over kennel doors to help block out any sudden flashes.
- If you know that a greyhound is particularly nervous or fearful of fireworks, provide them with a safe place to 'hide' and burrow under, e.g., extra blankets or a duvet. This behaviour is a natural coping strategy.
- Have the TV or radio playing to help mask the noise.
- Greyhounds take their lead from humans; if we are calm when any firework noise occurs, they may take some comfort from this. Excessive petting and cuddling may reinforce the feeling that there is something to fear; however, if human contact helps a particular greyhound to relax, then it is encouraged.
- If any greyhound displays extreme fear, then consider consulting your vet well in advance of high-risk periods to request a mild sedative to reduce anxiety. Be aware of the GBGB Rules of Racing regarding medication and seek specialist advice before resuming racing after administering any medication.
- Firework phobia may get worse with time. There are, however, longer-term measures that may help minimise the impact of sudden loud noises. For example, desensitising soundtracks that can be played at low volumes during times that the greyhound associates with something positive (e.g., when being fed, during 'play time'). Ask your vet for advice on this well in advance of high-risk periods.
- During high-risk periods, GBGB asks that its licensed tracks look to schedule race meetings to avoid any major local displays or exposure. If greyhounds are required to race at high-risk times, then consult with the stadium's Racing Manager and ask that any anxious greyhounds are rested during these times.
- If any greyhounds must be transported during high-risk times, never leave them unattended and implement measures to minimise the impact of potential noise of fireworks, e.g., keep the radio playing.
- If you know that a firework display has taken place in the vicinity of your kennel (or house, if you are caring for a retired greyhound at home), make sure to prevent access to any debris or remnants of spent fireworks that may be found on the ground. If eaten, these could cause your greyhound serious harm.

UPCOMING GBGB TRAINER WEBINAR: ‘GREYHOUND TRACKS AND THE SCIENCE BEHIND SAND CASTLES’.

GBGB is pleased to announce that Dr. Richard Payne will be delivering an online talk for GBGB licensees titled: “Greyhound tracks and the science behind sand castles”.

During the session, Dr. Payne will use his trademark engaging and accessible style to explain the physics of how greyhounds run and the unique anatomy and locomotion of the breed. He will also look at the science behind the racing surface and how it impacts greyhound biomechanics.

The webinar will be held on Thursday, October 23, 2025, at 14:00 via Microsoft Teams.

The talk will be followed by a Q&A session.

To register for the event, Click here.

Dr. Payne is an Associate Professor of Veterinary Anatomy at the University of Nottingham and a scientific and veterinary advisor to the GBGB. He also oversees GBGB’s ongoing Disease Surveillance and Monitoring Programme (DSMP), a national survey that monitors and collects information about sudden deaths and diseases in the racing greyhound population.

License holders who attend the session live will be awarded Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points. For those who cannot attend live, the session will be recorded and made available via the GBGB Trainers’ Portal.

Note: To access GBGB’s live webinars, you will need to download Microsoft Teams either on your mobile phone or computer and create a free account – you can do so here.

DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE INQUIRY

The Disciplinary Committee was in attendance on 4 September 2025.

Those present: -

Ms L Campbell (in the chair)

Mr P O'Dowd

Mr R O'Donovan

1 Wayne Greenaway

Rules 49(iv), 174(i)(a) and (b), 174(v) and (vi), 217, 152(i) and (ii)

The Disciplinary Committee convened to consider the report of a local inquiry held by the area stipendiary steward, on 5 December 2023, into the positive analysis of a post-race urine sample taken from the greyhound TRAPTOLINE DON on 21 July 2023 which identified the presence of azaperone and azaperol and Mr Greenaway's subsequent application for a grant of money from the GBGB hardship fund.

Mr Greenaway did not attend the hearing which took place by video link. Professor Tim Morris, independent scientific advisor, Pete Rosney, GBGB Area Stipendiary Steward, Phil McComish, GBGB Stipendiary Steward and Rocky Hughes, witness, were in attendance.

The Committee considered an email from Mr Greenaway sent at 9.50am on 4 September 2025 to GBGB stating that he was aware of the meeting but would not be attending or playing any further part in the proceedings against him. The Committee were mindful that Mr Greenaway's hearing had previously been adjourned at his request on the morning of the hearing on 28 April 2025.

Taking all of these factors into account, the Committee were satisfied that proper notice of the hearing had been given to Mr Greenaway, who was clearly aware of the hearing this day. Given that Mr Greenaway had made clear that he no longer wished to participate in any way, the Committee considered it had clear information that an adjournment would not secure Mr Greenaway's attendance at any hearing in the future and so the Committee decided that it was fair and appropriate to proceed with the hearing in Mr Greenaway's absence.

Mr Greenaway was licensed by GBGB as a trainer on the 21 June 2023 and the race meeting held at Towcester on Thursday 20 July 2023 was the first meeting in which he took part. The Committee was told that he arrived at Towcester assisted by two unlicensed individuals.

TRAPTOLINE DON competed in Race 8, a 500m flat race grade A4, running from trap 1. The greyhound ran poorly and finished last of five runners. His calculated time was a second slower than his previous run in the same grade, with no apparent trouble in running.

The Disciplinary Committee heard that at the local inquiry, Mr Greenaway stated in response to many questions that he did not administer any substance to TRAPTOLINE DON, nor did he financially benefit from the race in terms of betting. Mr Greenaway refused to give any further detail or explanation about the greyhound or what had occurred on 20 July 2023 or the finding of azaperone and azaperol in the urine sample.

Professor Morris confirmed and adopted his GBGB witness statement dated 25 April 2024. Professor Morris provided evidence that azaperone is available as a veterinary medicine as a sedative for pigs. It is not licensed for use in dogs but also acts as a sedative in dogs and has the potential to affect the performance and/or well-being of the greyhound. He told the Committee that it is a short acting substance with an effect for approximately 3 to 4 hours and that if a person was administering the substance to a greyhound to slow it down in a race, then the optimum time to administer the substance is ideally less than an hour before the race. Professor Morris stated that the substance would show up in a sample for a day or so maximum after administration. Professor Morris highlighted to the Committee that the urine sample was positive for both the substance and the metabolite which suggests that the substance passed through the greyhound's system. Professor Morris pointed out to the Committee that the metabolite is not something which can be obtained and added to a urine sample if it were to be suggested that the urine sample had been improperly tampered with to falsely show a positive result. Professor Morris stated that he could not identify any evidence of anything improper in terms of the sampling of TRAPTOLINE DON.

The Committee also heard evidence from Rocky Hughes who confirmed and adopted his witness statement dated 21 March 2025. Mr Hughes stated to the Committee that he still had the messages from Mr Greenaway on his phone. The Committee had sight of all of these messages which included comments from Mr Greenaway that 'This dog in question I'm now setting up myself so I can guarantee this dog won't be winning' and referred to Mr Greenaway 'laying in small sums so not to be caught' and 'training it myself...I'm now in full control'. The Committee also considered the copies of Mr Hughes' bank statements showing payments to Mr Greenaway's business bank account for Mr Greenaway to place bets on Mr Hughes' behalf. It was put to Mr Hughes whether he had made up the message exchanges with Mr Greenaway in order to frame Mr Greenaway. Mr Hughes denied this and said that he didn't have the knowledge or technical skills that would be necessary to manufacture fake messages.

The Committee also heard evidence from Mr Rosney, the GBGB stipendiary steward who attended Mr Greenaway's kennels on 21 July 2023 to obtain a urine sample from TRAPTOLINE DON. Mr Rosney confirmed and adopted his GBGB statements dated 7 February 2024. The Committee viewed two videos exhibited by Mr Rosney which showed the urine sample being obtained from the greyhound with a member of Mr Greenaway's staff present. The Committee was told that the member of staff was unlicensed. Mr Rosney told the Committee that the reason the sampling of the greyhound is in two videos was because he was videoing on his phone at the same time as carrying out the sampling and he pointed out to the Committee that at one point the video shows him having to pass Mr Greenaway's staff member his phone so that he could use both his hands to bottle and bag the sample. Mr Weston took Mr Rosney through the GBGB TESTS, SAMPLES – PROCEDURE at appendix IV on the GBGB Rules of Racing and Mr Rosney confirmed to the Committee how he had complied with the requirements. Mr Rosney highlighted that the requirements do not require that the sample is taken in the presence of a licensed kennel hand or trainer, only a 'handler' and that he was not required to video the sampling procedure but that he had chosen to take the additional step of recording the sampling of the greyhound as Mr Greenaway wasn't present and in order that anyone could view what had occurred. Mr Rosney was asked by the Committee if he had fitted Mr Greenaway up. Mr Rosney vehemently denied this and said he had not tampered with the sample.

The Committee then heard evidence from Mr McComish who was asked why TRAPTOLINE DON had not been sampled at the track on 20 July 2025. Mr McComish explained to the Committee that this was due to the pressures of all of his competing duties on the day.

The Committee also had sight of the application for a grant from the GBGB hardship fund signed and submitted by Mr Greenaway on 29th July 2023 stating that he had 23 greyhounds in training and 1 retired and his application was for his running costs for the next two months. A grant of £2156 was authorised on 2nd August 2023 and on 4th August 2023 the grant was paid to Mr Greenaway. In his GBGB statement Mr Rosney outlines that when he visited the kennels on 4th August all the greyhounds were gone and he learned that Mr Greenaway had, that morning, returned to Ireland and that all except two of his greyhounds had been transferred to other trainers. At the local inquiry Mr Greenaway stated that his application for a grant had been genuinely made by him for the 23 greyhounds and that it was a very sudden, last minute change of plan that led to the greyhounds being transferred to other trainers. He also highlighted that he retained two greyhounds and that he needed the grant to provide care for these greyhounds. The Committee were told that Mr Greenaway did not return any of the grant monies to GBGB.

Based on the evidence presented, the Disciplinary Committee accepted the accounts of Mr Hughes and Mr Rosney who they considered to be credible and consistent witnesses. The Committee were satisfied that the positive sample from TRAPTOLINE DON was a true and accurate finding which was properly taken by Mr Rosney.

The Committee considered the written responses of Mr Greenaway and what he said about the evidence and alleged rule breaches. The Committee noted that whilst Mr Greenaway sought to challenge the admissibility of and exclude the messages and evidence from Mr Hughes, he gave no reason as to why Mr Hughes would lie about Mr Greenaway and manufacture false messages and bank statements to support a dishonest account.

Due to the evidence in the messages about Mr Greenaway fixing the outcome of races and laying bets, the Committee were satisfied that on the balance of probabilities, Mr Greenaway had either deliberately administered azaperone to TRAPTOLINE DON himself or had knowingly allowed someone else to administer the substance to the greyhound in order to fix the outcome of the race and so as to manipulate betting in respect of the race.

Given the evidence about Mr Greenaway having transferred all except two of his greyhounds and left for Ireland on the day he received his hardship grant, the Committee were satisfied that on the balance of probabilities, Mr Greenaway had made a false statement in his application to GBGB that he needed a grant to cover the cost of training and keeping 23 greyhounds for the next two months.

The Disciplinary Committee found Mr Greenaway in breach of rules 174(i) (a) and (b), 217, 152(i) and (ii), 49(iv) and 174(v) and (vi) of the GBGB rules of racing.

The Committee noted the very serious nature of the rule breaches which they found proved against Mr Greenaway which occurred only a short time after he obtained his GBGB licence as a trainer. The rule breaches included corrupt, dishonest conduct and risking the health and safety of the greyhound by administering to it a sedative licensed for pigs before it was raced. The GBGB guidelines for penalties states that the purpose of penalties is to bring about behavioural change in a clear and positive manner. However, the Committee viewed Mr Greenaway's rule breaches as of the utmost seriousness and such a shortfall of the standards of conduct expected of licensed trainers, that any positive behavioural change to be unlikely. The Committee noted that the rule breaches arose out of very deliberate actions by Mr Greenaway and not out of some poor knowledge or skills as a trainer which might be possible to remedy via learning, support from the stipendiary steward or improvements to practices within his kennels.

The Committee considered that there were no mitigating features to Mr Greenaway's actions and noted that he had no acceptance of his actions whatsoever.

The Committee considered the range of penalties available to it and the need to protect the welfare of the greyhound, protect the integrity of greyhound racing and maintain public confidence and proper standards of conduct. Bearing all these factors in mind the Committee considered that Mr Greenaway's conduct was fundamentally incompatible with his continued participation in the greyhound racing in any way.

The Disciplinary Committee determined that the appropriate penalty was a warning off for an indefinite period as well as a fine of £5000.

The Disciplinary Committee also ordered Mr Greenaway to pay costs of £20,288.84 to GBGB. This figure reflects the unusually high cost in concluding Mr Greenaway's inquiry due to the poor way in which Mr Greenaway has engaged with GBGB resulting in delay to the conclusion of this matter, Mr Greenaway's failure to comply with directions of the Disciplinary Committee and his combative approach to GBGB staff which may have been a factor in GBGB instructing external counsel.
